Outline

- 1 The DD Program
- 2 Our DD Partner Universities
- 3 How to apply
- 4 Selection
- 5 Questions

What does Double Degree Program mean?

- Thanks to specific agreements between UniInsubria and Partner Universities, GEEM students have the opportunity to get 2 degrees
- Participating students spend:
 - their first year studying at the University of Insubria
 - their second year (or part of it) studying at the Partner University
- Upon successful completion of the DDP, they get 2 diplomas:
 - ① Master's degree from the University of Insubria
 - ② Master's degree from the Partner University

Why attending the Double Degree Program?

- Letting apart the old say “Two is [usually] better than one”, and other obvious reasons:
 - widening one’s own horizons, great intercultural & social experience, etc.
- DDP gives students the opportunity to improve their knowledge of GEEM core subjects, i.e. innovation & applied economics, international business & management
- Enhances job opportunities, especially in international companies & organisations
- Not least, allows for improving one’s knowledge of foreign languages
