University of Insubria, Department of Law, Economics and Cultures
2 - 6 February 2026

THE WINTER COURSE

Coordinator: Silvia Marino

Scientific Committee: Silvia Marino, University of Insubria; Javier Carrascosa González, University of Murcia; Anna Wysocka-Bar, Jagiellonian University in Kraków.

Advisory Board: Marta Requejo Isidro, University of Santiago de Compostela; Tobias Lutzi, University of Augsburg; Veronica Ruiz Abou-Nigm, Edinburgh Law School; Susanne Gössl, University of Bonn; Paula Poretti, J.J. Strossmayer University of Osijek.

The European Association of Private International Law (EAPIL), together with the Department of Law, Economics and Cultures of the University of Insubria, with the Law Faculty of the University of Murcia (Spain) and the Law Faculty of the Jagiellonian University in Kraków (Poland), is organising the Third EAPIL Winter School. The 2026 edition will be devoted to “Values in International Private Law”, dealing with an ample range of topics such as the protection of weaker contractual parties, to challenges that have surfaced in more recent times, such as the role of private international law in the realisation to the rights of minorities, migrants and vulnerable persons under an approach combining theory and practice, and making wide room for interaction with the attendees.
