

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES - SCIENCE
Course Plan 2018-2019*

Lesson no.	When	English for Academic Purposes - Science
1.	17/09	Reading and understanding scientific texts
2.	18/09	Register in academic writing
3.	19/09	Text types and functions
4.	20/09	Abstracts and text functions
5.	21/09	Listening and presentation skills
6.	24/09	Listening and presentation skills
7.	26/09	Project oral presentation
8.	27/09	Final test

* Subject to updates, changes, cancellations. Please check the Moodle Platform regularly for updates.

COURSE INFORMATION

When: two weeks in September, 10:00 - 14:00 am (adjustable)

Where: Varese, Campus Bizzozero, DiECO (via Monte Generoso 71), INFO04

Who: Daniel Russo, Department of Theoretical and Applied Sciences daniel.russo@uninsurbia.it

What: English for Academic Purposes - Science: Reading, Speaking and Listening

How: Frontal lesson + Class listening/reading/speaking activity + (optional) Home writing and listening activity

For whom: Master Degree Program in Biomedical Sciences

Requirements: good to advanced level of English (B1+/B2)

Aims: Developing general academic reading, listening and speaking skills + presenting and discussing a project orally and listening to lectures + note taking and expanding

Tools: lecture notes, academic research tools, dictionaries, grammars, material distributed in class, videos, Macmillan English Campus (MEC) platform.